

Accessing Seattle Public Schools eBooks

This experience works best if you log in with your SPS Username/Password, but the generic account (Username: studentsps / Password: access) will work for most functions.

- 1. Go to https://www.destinydiscover.com
- 2. Select Location: Washington / School: Your School and click GO
- 3. Select Login

Destiny Discover	Home	Search Q	© Search Options	Log In
Welcome to ROOSEVELT HIGH SCHOOL

- 4. Scroll down to the eBook section
- 5. Click the book you want

Reading Options:

- a. If you want to read the book online in your web browser (Chrome/Firefox, Edge), simply select Open
  - i. When you are finished using the book, be sure to select "Close Book" so that it will be available for another person
  - Note there is no Kindle app at this time, so simply read online on your Kindle
- b. If you would like to access the book on a mobile device, such as an iPhone or Android, select Checkout and then download the "Destiny Read" app from iTunes or Google Play. You can only Checkout a book if you login with an individual account: it is not available with the generic studentsps/access account
  - i. Within the app, select Location: Washington / School: Your School
  - ii. Select Login and enter your SPS Username and Password
- c. The titles you have checked out, will automatically appear within the app
- d. Select Open

Tyler looks out the window of his bedroom and can't believe what he is seeing. He rubs his eyes. Still there! Some strange people are coming out of the trailer where the hired help usually stays. They have brown skin and black hair, and although they don't wear feathers or carry tomahawks, they sure look like the American Indians in his history textbook last year in fifth grade.
