7:20	Principal's Update <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● There have been incidents with 3 adult males at Bryant and View Ridge of them watching/filming children and one performing a lewd act. Just a reminder to be vigilant. ● Bryant Principals knew NOTHING about Juneau's announcement about K-2 being back in the classroom ● Our Race and Equity Committee is actively engaged and staff is focused on adding more valuable approach to how we address race and equity ● Teachers meet with their grade level peers daily to talk about ways to engage students (lack of attention at this time of year is normal even during a normal year) 	Charmaine Marshall

7:30	Annual Campaign Update Lacking all of our typical channels in communication, our social media team worked hard to communicate the campaign: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $119,000 (67% of what we had last year) • $8,000 for additional ask (FIN) 	Allison Broadgate/ Sara Fenzi
7:40	Community Engagement Update Trivia Night next week: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each grade gets its own night 6-6:30 (K & 1 combined) • Need emcee's for each night 	Ana Cottingham/ Shalini Mehta
7:50	Teacher Representatives: Social Studies and Social Justice lessons at Bryant. Jessica Dolan: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Social studies is a broad topic as is social justice. What's most valuable is listening to other people. Bryant Equity Committee has introduced lots of ideas and concepts to the staff. • Looking at social studies standards. Social studies is broken down into 4 categories: civics, economics, geography and history • Since 2015 Tribal Sovereignty is taught (curriculum is supported by 29 tribes); Each grade learns a lot about cultures and how people identify themselves; Helping kids know who they are and liking who they are while having more empathy and support of differences Chara Johnson: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Shared a lesson plan for "Everyone is welcome here" for 1st graders to demonstrate how they talk through diversity and abilities. • Created a committee for race and equity • Professional Dev. Days • BLM vocabulary spreadsheet • Share resources for BLM, Indigenous Day • Participate in conversations about race 	Jessica Dolan/ Chara Johnson

8:00	Adele proposes that 33% of funds donated for teachers be allocated towards non-traditional clasfsroom teachers (Special Ed, ELL) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li data-bbox="370 321 841 371">● We need to collaborate on ideas
